In all these writ petitions Sub-Section (4) of Section 5G of the Andhra Pradesh General Sales Tax (for short "the Act") has been challenged as unconstitutional.

This issue has already been considered by this Court in a judgment in Maruthi Constructions, Vijayawada & another vs. The Government of Andhra Pradesh & another[1]. In this judgment, this Court has allowed the writ petition and quashed the impugned provision of the Act.

Therefore, following the same judgment, all these writ petitions are also allowed. No order as to costs.
